Ban Jong Na
Was there a time when you two were close?
Detective Lee?
Ban Jong Na was the only person in the Homicide Section 2 that I could talk to.
Was it just a petty friends-close kind there's a reason he hid this?
It might have been because there was no need to mention it
It seems like Ban Jong Na thinks it does not matter.
Are you covering for him because he's the victim of your crime?
Detective Kang
You want to investigate objectively
You're playing the role of a detective.
Then, Detective Kang, do you know about Ban Jong Na?
Not necessarily because... But Detective Lee, didn't you have questions, too?
Well, there are many who are unaware of it when they decide to hide their past, and not all of them are for bad things.
Yeah
Yeah
What if he secretly had no wants to hide about being a part of the mafia or such a gang?
A past he doesn't want to talk about.....
Ban Jong Na..... What exactly happened back then...?
Detective Lee
Yeah
The atmosphere is too dark.
Excuse me?
If you were talking about my facial wrinkles
It's impressive, ours there.

Ah sorry, that didn't sound right. I was trying to say.....

Hmm? You don't understand?

Uhm. It wasn't such long time for me to adapt into this "world"....

Oh, really?

Uhm....

It's really awkward....

Ah, yes

When you're walking around you see a lot of thick, see-through spirits, right?

That's what spirits usually look like

Those spirits who don't deal with their death or have unsolved problems

Can't leave this life until they are satisfied, and they wander around until they pass.

But that's a problem?

Interfering around in this life.....

Most people think out of themselves and pass with it to their time.

Though sometimes a mischievous spirit will scare humans.

Wow, that's still pretty tame in comparison

Ah....

Tame?

That's why those ghosts laugh then...

In comparison to dangerous ghosts, like the man we saw earlier.

You have to be careful of spirits that make a scene and ghosts who don't make other ghosts.

Why? Is there something different?

Uhm.

How should I say this...

Spirits...

Ah, yes. They are through mental power.

The strongest their mental power, or their will power, the difference between them from humans.

The way that world's appearance and color and strong.

It means that we has that mood fluctuating

Or anger towards something in this life

The longer the emotion continuing the spirit is, the more likely it is to become violence

So you have to be more careful.

Weren't most of your cases like this, Detective Lee?

Ah.

Yes . That's right.

Did you understand it some?

.....

Yes. Thank you for explaining this to me.

No problem.

I thought you were an experienced person, but I guess they aren't so.

No.

I know so little that I have benefited by a child.

Ah, that dual-haired kid?
